

•
facilitated protein floating around

binds with a glucose

the facilitated protein finds the receptor protein

they bind together

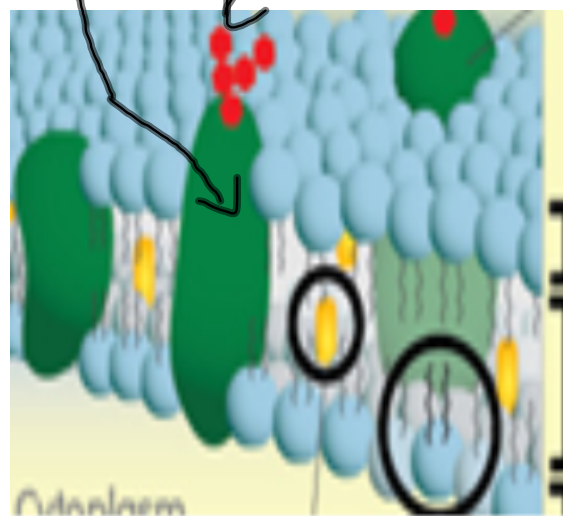

once bound the carrier
protein changes shape
and opens

glucose goes through into the cell

channel protien

receptor
protein

No Energy

- Each channel protein
has its own specific molecule which it lets through.

